CITY TRUSTEES

Proposition to Sell Lots to City—E. D. Goode Wants a Franchise. Contracts for Streets

All members present; except Chairman Watson, Trustee Coker acting as chairman pro tem.

A communication was read from the Glendale Investment Co. offering to the city the following lots in the event of any being wanted for fire house sites: Lot 21, block 8, alley corner, 50x165 feet, north side of Broadway between Jackson and Kenwood, $1200. Lot 6, block 22, southeast corner of Broadway and Jackson, 50x150 feet, $5400. Communication filed for the present.

A communication was read from E. D. Goode asking that a franchise be advertised for sale from the corner of Broadway and Glendale avenue to and down Adams street; referred to committee of the whole.

Another communication was read petitioning for appointment as night watchman from John Haynes; referred to committee of the whole.

Permit was asked for use of the streets for certain hours on Thanksgiving day for motorcycle races; granted.

The tax collector reported $1918.80 collected during past week.

Reports from manager of lighting department and the city clerk for October were received and filed.

The Pacific Telephone and Telephone Co. addressed the board through its representative, Mr. Mason, in regard to clause in proposed franchise covering number of calls allowed between Glendale and Los Angeles on a flat rate. At present the limit is forty calls to a subscriber and the company feels that the limitation is reasonable. It developed that there are at present 1320 phones of this company in use in Glendale. The trustees expressed the belief that the city should be given assurance that there should at least be no increase in tolls during the life of the franchise. There was considerable discussion between the trustees and Mr. Mason, the former standing out for a clause in the franchise fixing the number of free calls and the latter strenuously objecting. Mr. Mason finally agreed to submit the question to headquarters in San Francisco, the matter to be taken up next week.

A report was received from the city engineer recommending acceptance of the bid of M. W. McCombs for improvement of Dayton and Campbell streets. The recommendation was adopted and the necessary resolution adopted.

The city engineer made a report on the extension of Doran street from Kenwood street to Glendale avenue, which was agreed to and a resolution of intention to improve a portion of Doran street was adopted.

Miss Minnie A. Cross was by resolution appointed clerk of the lighting department at a salary of $75 a month.

The street superintendent reported that the improvement of Sixth street east of Verdugo road is completed ready for acceptance by the city. On request of electric lighting manager the sum of $500 was transferred from the general lighting fund to ornamental lighting district No. 2 to tide over period of delay in collecting assessments.

The chairman and clerk were authorized to sign contract for sprinkling cart.

The street superintendent reported having secured, temporarily at least, a dumping place for tin cans. It was decided to allow Contractor Randolph the sum of 50 cents a day for collecting the fees from householders.

The matter of city printing was brought up and on advice of the city attorney the matter was continued for three weeks.

A communication was read from City Marshal Miller commending Night Watchman Elvett for arresting a dangerous character.

The matter of railroad franchises was brought up by Trustee Lane. Attention was called to the franchise granted last April for the building of an electric railway from Broadway and Brand westward towards Griffith Park, and the fact that no work had been done aside from the laying of two rails, making it a question whether the term "good faith" as mentioned in the franchise had been lived up to. Discussing this subject, the board adjourned to consider the applications for franchise on Broadway and Adams streets and presumably to discuss other matters.

TONIGHT'S CONCERT.

The second concert of the series of five concerts given by the extension course of the Los Angeles Musical College, under the auspices of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and the Glendale Union High school will take place this Friday evening at the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock. Single admission tickets can be had at the door, price 25 cents. The program for the evening will be up to the high standard of last week's performance. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony E. Carson and Mr. Vernon Spencer being the principal artists.

MARRIED.

At "The Manse," 421 Cedar street, Glendale, on Wednesday, November 13, by Rev. W. E. Edmonds, Roy A. Besette and Esther M. Anderson, of San Diego.

Dr. O. J. Furst has sold his house and an acre or more of ground on East Fifth street to H. C. Gower, who is now in occupancy. Dr. Furst and family have moved to Los Angeles.

THE GIRARD CONCERT

A Full House and an Artistic Success

The first of a series of five concerts given as a part of "The Extension Course of the Los Angeles Musical College under the auspices of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and the Glendale Union High school," was given at the high school auditorium last Friday evening. The hall was filled with an audience of about 400 people who enjoyed one of the best musical programmes ever given here.

All of the performers are recognized as artists of high merit and their work Friday evening was in harmony with this reputation.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Girard opened with four vocal duets and in response to an encore sang "In the Spring Time."

Miss Menasco followed with two fine solos on the violinello in the playing of which instrument, it is said by critics, she has no superior, an assertion which one can easily credit after hearing her splendid rendition of "Meditation" from Thais, and Gavotte No. 2.

Mr. Girard delighted the audience with three vocal numbers and for an encore sang the old favorite, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," with a very satisfactory tenderness of expression.

Mrs. Girard gave three charming vocal selections, accompanied by Mr. Girard on the piano. For an encore she sang an Italian selection that showed the unusual range of her sweet and perfectly trained voice.

The pianist, Mr. Ray Hastings, followed with three instrumental selections, one of them being his own composition which was also appreciated and encored. His work as accompanist was artistic and sympathetic.

The concluding number consisted of vocal duets by Mr. and Mrs. Girard, "Nearest and Dearest," a selection from "Magic Flute" and "Passage Birds Farewell," in all of which their voices blended in tones that made perfect melody. These concerts will take place every Friday evening for the next four weeks.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.

Charter Day.

On November 12 the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club entertained guests in observance of the club's charter day. The Masonic Hall was beautifully and appropriately adorned with American flags and emblems. Floral decorations were composed of quantities of greenery and crimson flowers. The four hundred members and guests were greeted by those receiving, who were Mrs. R. E. Chase, president; Mrs. Daniel Campbell, chairman of program committee, and the members of the courtesy committee who were Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, Mrs. F. S. Church, Mrs. W. Fraley, Mrs. W. Stamps, Mrs. Hearnshaw and Mrs. J. P. Green.

Noted guests of the afternoon were: Madame Castillo, sister of Madame Nordica; Miss Hilma Nolte, famous vocalist, recently of Berlin; Miss Verona Nolte, famous violinist, a student of Krause; and Mrs. George E. Hutton, district chairman of music of the Women's Federation of Clubs.

Punch and wafers were served by Mrs. Julius Kranz, Mrs. Pleus A. Kranz, Mrs. R. B. Brown, Mrs. Sue Andrews and Miss Edna Klinke.

"An Afternoon with American Composers" was the program for the day in charge of Mrs. Mattison B. Jones. The musical program given under this title was one of rare and unusual excellence. The marked and evident appreciation testified to the excellence of the beautiful music rendered.

LIGHTING SYSTEM COMPLETED ON WEST SIDE.

Looking down through the night the observer on a neighboring mountain top during the past week might have noticed that Glendale, judging by its lighted area, was making remarkable growth. Beginning Monday evening the new lights on the west of Central avenue have been springing into being at a rapid rate until now the entire system is doing full service, 198 standards in all. The result gives to that section of town a better light service than the city has generally, the lights being placed at shorter intervals and in some cases being of higher power. All the wires are under ground and all poles in alleys. All parts of the city are now supplied with lights. New consumers are being added at the rate of about two a day. The capacity of the system has recently been enlarged, four new transformers having been installed, enlarging the capacity from 150 to 950 kilowatts. The total number of street lamps in use is now about 500 in addition to the 136 ornamentals in the business center.

THE HOMKRAFT FAIR.

"Where did they get the name?" Why, they made it "at home," just as they are making all of the articles which are to be on exhibition and sale at their fair in the Odd Fellows' Hall, Tuesday night, Nov. 19, at 8 o'clock.

An excellent musical program has been arranged. The Glendale band will play several selections and Mr. L. B. Case, one of the members of the band has promised to play a mellophone solo. There will be a piano selection by Mrs. MacMillan and solos by Miss Clara Midcalf and Mrs. E. S. Grant. Mrs. Grant is a vocal teacher and has recently opened her studio at her home at 1468 Milford street.

ALL ABOUT YOUR TAXES

An Increase of Seven Millions in Assessment—Also Increase in County Rate

One of the two things in life that are certain, is now a seasonable topic, and that is taxes. It is the time of year when the property owner who is holding on to a piece of real estate by the "skin of his teeth" drops into profanity which being interpreted means, "Blessed is nothing." Year after year the citizens of Los Angeles county, proud of their county and rejoicing in its unexampled prosperity, have kept on paying their taxes, hoping all the time that as the county became richer and the population increased the burden of it would be distributed so as not to be so grievous, but now the limit of his hopes is reached and the taxpayer is forced to acknowledge that increased wealth and progress means increased taxation per capita. He doesn't know how it is nor why, but the fact stares him in the face and strikes at his pocket-book viciously. Taxpayers this year, notwithstanding an increase of seventy million dollars in valuation of taxable property, find their taxes increased over last year, in many cases by as much as a hundred per cent.

The tax collector is charged up with a tax roll totaling $10,389,558.89. This is distributed as follows:

Incorporated cities $3,589,400
Outside cities 1,538,190 Special school 1,896,884 Municipal taxes 63,080
Special district 106,864
Library 46,310
Deficiency 152,551

Notwithstanding this very large increase in assessable property, the supervisors placed the tax rate 15 cents higher than last year, an 80-cent rate inside incorporated cities, 64¢ of this being the state rate to cover the Panama Exposition Tax. Outside the cities there is 50 cents for roads and 3 cents for free library, making a total of 1.33 on $100 valuation.

The county collects the municipal taxes for a number of cities throughout the county, among these being Tropic. These are the taxes included under the head of "Municipal" in the above statement. Collection is made also for a number of lighting districts and one levee district, included under the head "Special." One lighting district, Van Nuys, is charged with a special rate of 1.65.

Tropic is assessed at $753,460 as against $400,000 last year. Its school rate, .86, of which the high school gets .56, interest .07 and special school tax .23. Tropic's total rate, state, county and municipal is therefore $2.81.

Glendale's school rate is 1.26, which with the county rate of .80, makes a THIRTEEN—Glen News 11-13. The total rate of $2.06 on an assessed valuation of four and a half millions. Adding the municipal rate of 1.18 makes Glendale's total tax rate $3.24. Glendale's special school tax is divided as follows: Grammar school bonds, .27; high school, .56; interest and sinking fund, .07; special tax, .36.

Glendale's municipal rate on recently annexed territory on the west side is ten cents less than the above, that section not being responsible for the entire bonded indebtedness of the city. The increased valuation placed on property by the assessor has been made in a laudable effort to put all the property on the base valuation of forty per cent of the selling value. At least that is the assessor's side of it. This seems to put the responsibility for the apparently unwarranted increase upon the county supervisors who fixed the rate. With an increased basis of seven millions to tax, it is difficult to see what reason existed for making the county rate higher than last year. The supervisors we understand, place much of the burden of responsibility upon Supt. of Schools, Mark Keppel. Mr. Keppel is an expensive official, as his sanction of the very high "Special" school taxes shows, but it is not clear how he is responsible for much of the increase in the general county rate, about 19 cents of which goes to schools.

The above will serve to inform taxpayers as to the purposes to which the amount they pay is supposed to be devoted. What the supervisors intend to do with the surplus for the coming year will be matter of interest as time passes.

The first installment of county taxes becomes delinquent Monday at 5 p. m., Nov. 25th, at the tax collector's office, Hall of Records, Los Angeles. Glendale city taxes delinquent Dec. 31st.

SIXTH STREET PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION.

The regular meeting of this association was held on Friday afternoon. A large amount of business was transacted. Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the association, resigned, having changed her residence to the West Glendale school district. Mrs. John Hunchberger was unanimously elected as new president. Mrs. Hunchberger, being unusually capable and a master parliamentarian, having many times filled the presidential chair of various organizations, is particularly qualified for the office of president.

Mrs. Frank Hester was appointed chairman of the emergency committee. Mrs. A. L. Burson of the membership committee. Dr. Jessie A. Russell was appointed chairman of the ways and means committee, the members of the committee being Mrs. H. M. Mathews, Mrs. J. W. Wilton and Mrs. E. H. Wightman. Under the auspices of this committee a Scotch tea will be given Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wightman, on the corner of Sixth and Central. A nominal admittance of ten cents will be charged and all interested are cordially invited.

Mrs. E. H. Noe, former president of the Mills College Alum Association, was speaker of the afternoon. Her address, "Our Boys," was among the best of the year's programs. She urged mothers to realize the necessity of memorizing, to concentrate their thoughts, and to work towards an ultimate goal. She argued that people do not sufficiently cultivate their various senses, and that in the rush of modern days, we take too much for granted without a consideration of the laws of cause and effect.

THE CITY PRINTING.

The new contract is being held up pending the decision of Judge Finlayson in the Superior Court as to whether the Jewel City Press is a legal newspaper. The whole matter depends upon the construction given to the statute which declares that a legal newspaper must "have been established, printed and published for one year" in the place where publication is made. It is admitted that the Press has not been printed in Glendale for a year past, but the lawyers differ as to whether the law means what it says.

PARENT-TEACHER FEDERATION

The Glendale Parent-Teacher Federation has been successful in securing Miss Frances M. Richardson, the "Flag Lady," to deliver her address, "The Growth and Triumphs of the American Flag," on Friday afternoon, December 6th, in the high school auditorium.

In order that every child in the Glendale schools may attend the admission fee has been made five cents. Mrs. Charles H. Toll is chairman of the day.

THE WEATHER.

Southern California was treated to a light fall of rain last Sunday morning. In Glendale and vicinity the rainfall measured a quarter of an inch and was sufficient to settle the dust and clear off the atmosphere so that the days since have been a delight. There have been two or three light frosts in the lower portions of the valley which have scarcely marked tender foliage.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETING.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society will meet Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 19, at 2:30, in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church. Every lady of the church is invited. Subject, "The Frontier" and "Latin America."

GLENDAL, CAL., NOVEMBER 15, 1912

The success of the NEWS reading ads is being proved every day. If you want anything or have anything to sell, a few lines in the NEWS brings results.

Our fellow townsman, Mr. Fred O'Brien, who went to Riverside about a year ago, buying an interest in the "Enterprise" of that city, has made a trade with Mr. Gabbert of the Oxnard Courier, and is now managing the latter paper.

The Glendale NEWS Special Development
edition will be out next week.
It will bring Glendale and vicinity up to date, be attractive in appearance and filled with good material. Just the thing to send "Back East" and elsewhere in the wide world.

The reason why candidates Taft and Frederickson, nominated for judges, were willing to withdraw a week before the election after having made affidavit that they would not do so, now becomes apparent. There will be six or eight new judges appointed for Los Angeles county during the coming winter. Who can doubt that the names of these two gentlemen will head the list? No one who knows our governor.

In last week's election the voters throughout the state showed a greater intelligence in voting on amendments and initiative measures than they did a year ago when they swallowed the entire program. All of the measures voted on at the last election were defeated except the free school book proposition and the irrigation bond matter. Whether they did wisely in this county in adopting the new charter, remains to be seen.

In the election of last week, Verdugo precinct in which are located the Casa Verdugo and La Ramada restaurants, voted in favor of issuing liquor licenses to restaurants, by a vote of 246 to 112. But the total vote in the supervisor district was against the proposition by 12,767 to 4,377. The effect of the vote is to deprive the two restaurants named of the privilege of serving liquor with meals; this result being obtained by the votes of other precincts. The effect of this is entirely contrary to the spirit of "local option."

Mr. Francis Heney recommends that the "Progressive" party in California hereafter sail under its own colors and drop the designation of "Republican." If Mr. Heney and his political colleagues had adopted this plan immediately after the Chicago convention when they went into a new party but persisted in wearing the label of the old, they would have carried California for Roosevelt by a good majority and have avoided a factional bitterness which will not be outgrown for some time to come. They are now reaping the results of their unwisedom. Honesty is good policy for even a political party devoted to "Reform."

A young lady asked the NEWS office the other day to recommend her to a good family willing to take a boarder.
We couldn't do it, didn't know of any, none advertised. People call every day or so to inquire for houses to rent, sometimes we can help them but usually not. Why don't the people who have things to sell let the world know about it?

Furnished houses are in demand in this vicinity, why does not some one who wants to "fill a long-felt want"
and make a good investment at the same time, build and furnish some cottages which can be rented at fair prices to people who would like to stop with us if we would let them?

ceed himself, although he had the opposition of the brass-bound Lissner-Earl combination, beat all the other candidates in his own territory, receiving 984 votes to 957 for Roberts and 700 for Hammack. He was beaten in the district however by about 300 votes. The result in this case shows a majority of the voters have not sufficient knowledge of political conditions and candidates at all times to cast an intelligent vote, for the people undoubtedly want to secure independent public servants to serve them, but find it easier to accept the recommendation of a political organization with a benevolent title than to investigate for themselves.

THE WAR IN EUROPE.

The most dreadful details of the European war, continue to come across the ocean. In the most barbarous age of the world, war was never attended by more shocking details of human suffering. The Turks have shown themselves to be poor soldiers, fitter to massacre helpless women and children than to meet their enemies in a fair contest, but their sufferings notwithstanding their own capabilities of barbarism, appeal to the pity of the world. There are rumors of serious differences of opinion among the greater powers that are watching the conflict like vultures perched above a dying beast, but it is hard to believe that there is any immediate danger of their precipitating a conflict among themselves that would be a world-wide catastrophe. Viewing the matter at a distance and necessarily without intimate knowledge of the potential issues involved, it would seem to be a great injustice to the victorious allies of the Balkans to rob them of the full fruits of their victory. Their bravery deserves even Constantinople as a prize and Prince Ferdinand or some other military genius is worthy of quite an important place in history for the wonders accomplished in a month's campaign.

CORRESPONDENCE

THE SOCIALIST POINT OF VIEW.

The wonderful advance made in discovery and invention in recent times causes many people to believe that there is nothing but progress ahead for America irrespective of what way our energies and thoughts are directed. Let us not, however, overlook the lessons of history. When the armies of Europe and America were battering down the walls of Peking the Chinese minister to England said in a periodical in substance this: China ago China tried machinery and learned that she must give up either it or the empire. She learned that it was amassing her wealth into few hands, destroying her institutions and menacing her national life, and she was forced to destroy it or it would destroy her.

He thus summed up the cause, the effect, and the remedy. But what a remedy! It seems unaccountable that a man of intellect should not at once discern that if a few were permitted to own the machinery and operate it for profit (and of course private ownership would be impossible without profit) they must in time own the empire. That it was not the machinery that was destroying the empire, but the fact that it was used to enhance the possessions of its few owners used as a medium through which to exploit labor, that if privately owned it must prove a collective curse; that if collectively owned and operated for the benefit of the collective body it would have blessed the nation and saved countless ages of useless toil.

That the question as to whether machinery should prove a blessing or a curse resolves itself wholly into ownership. Strange we say that a man of intellect should not discern these things, and yet although America today stands face to face with the same problem, how few of her people have thought out any better solution than that adopted by the Chinese.

The prevailing idea seems to be to destroy the trusts; destroy cooperation of capital; destroy one of the greatest labor-saving devices of our age; destroy system and organization in competitive system. Not so with the Socialists. They say trusts are a good thing for those who own them.
That is why they are in favor of the nation owning the trusts so that all people may share the benefits of them.

Do you want Chinese conditions to prevail in America? If not, you had better post yourself on Socialism. The Socialists are the defenders of American institutions, trusts and all. Let the nation own the trusts.

Organized Glendale Socialist Branch.

TROUBLES OF THE RAILROADS.

An article in the World's Work, by R. E. Younkum presents in a very strong light the dependence of this country upon its railroads, no more for the work of transportation carried on by them, but for the employment of labor and the consumption of material. A few of the statements made are the following: The railroads dis-burse yearly for labor the sum of over a billion dollars to 1,700,000 employes.
Being the largest employers of labor in the country, and in addition to their own pay rolls, they support indirectly another army of a million and a half drawing yearly $540,000,000 in wages.
The railroads are also the largest consumers of manufactured products; they use one-fourth of the lumber, iron and steel that is produced. Mr. Younkum argues that this great industry is seriously threatened by the increasing demands of labor and the exactions of the government. In regard to the increase in wages the fact is stated that on June 30th, 1911, there were 31,037 less employees on the railroads than on the same date in 1910, and yet the wages paid were $49,076, 000 more than in 1910, and the net revenue of the railroads in the same period decreased $41,000,000. The cost of coal for fuel in 1911 was $227,000, 000.

Mr. Younkum states that there are 4000 miles of railroads that need to be built, but that it is doubtful in view of the increasing cost of operating, whether the companies can get the capital necessary for their construction.

W. C. T. U. NOTES.

Regular meeting at 2:00 p. m., Friday, November 15th; mother's meeting at 3:00 p. m., with Mrs. Julia D.
Phelps, county president, in charge.
We do look for every member to bring or invite some mother to this meeting.
Mrs. Horace Overton, corner Third and Belmont, is hostess.

Our white ribboners all over our land have been instrumental in saving many young women and girls from a life of shame. We have workers at Ellis Island employed by our W.C.T.U.
for years ready to give the strangers to our land help and yet, in spite of all this, the frightful disclosures of the White Slave traffic, the means used to entice young girls, and our W.C.T.U. of the United States submit the following code of rules for women and young girls traveling alone. 1st, when in need of information about trains, route, time, etc., ask no one but a railroad employee. 2nd, on no account leave the depot or go to any hotel or eating house in company with a stranger, either man or woman. If there is no eating room in the station, give a policeman to direct you to a respectable table one, naming the price you can afford to pay for a meal. 4th, any information about streets, cars or cabs get from a policeman and not a stranger. That is his business; he is placed on the street crossing for that purpose. 5th, if it is necessary to stop over any length of time in a strange city, hire a licensed cab.
These are always admitted inside the depot grounds. A man comes on the train with checks. He is reliable or he would not be allowed to do so. Give him your checks and any information he gives about street cars and cabs is reliable. 6th, always pay for your own meals. Order it yourself and under no consideration allow any one to induce you to accept a free ride in carriage or automobile. Pay your own fare or walk. 7th, always stop at a reliable and well-advertised hotel. If you then allow yourself to wander away or be coaxed away, they are not responsible. 8th, don't flirt. 9th, if you find yourself stranded in a strange place, ask a policeman to direct you to the W.C.T.U. or Salvation Army headquarters.

We are circulating petitions all over our state to secure an enactment by the legislature of 1913 a red-light injunction and abatement law, which will, if it becomes effective, do away with houses of prostitution. Iowa has such a law, and former Attorney General H. W. Beyers says of it, "Under this law the business is rapidly disappearing." At our last session of the California legislature, a measure similar to the Iowa law was introduced.
It had the opposition of the liquor interests, which through the sacrifices of young women manage to create an artificial demand for intoxicants. But the legislature convened in 1913, and we just want to deluge the legislature with petitions and we need your name and you who read this see that your name is on one. We will have them in all churches. We go around with three petitions with us. This one and one against allowing students at our state university to serve liquors at social functions, and one prohibiting the manufacture, use of, etc., of cigarettes in California. Sign these if an opportunity comes your way.
Mrs. Hattie E. Gaylord, Pres.

ARREST OF SUSPICIOUS CHAR- ACTER.

Officer Everett arrested early Monday morning a young man whom he found about two o'clock prowling around the grocery store on Broadway next the Overton real estate office.
The officer had noticed him early in the evening on Brand boulevard when the stranger asked about running time of Pacific Electric cars, and his suspicions were aroused when he found him later as stated above. The prisoner had on his person a 36 caliber revolver loaded and with a good supply of cartridges in addition. Inquiry developed the fact that he had been employed at the dairy of Mr. Wilke on San Fernando road and had been discharged Sunday morning, his employer complaining that he was too lazy to be of any use. The man, or boy, for he was only about 19 years of age, said that he had recently come from his home in Kansas and told the usual hard luck story. He came because Recorder Whomes who gave him the usual fine or imprisonment sentence for carrying deadly weapons.
Officer Everett is confident that he intended to enter the store and commit burglary.

HIGH CLASS BASEBALL

On Saturday afternoon the Methodists met and defeated the Presbyterians at baseball by a score of 9-8.
The Verdugo Park ball grounds were the scene of the lively encounter.
About one hundred and fifty interested spectators were gathered to watch the game and between innings impartially braced the players with strong lemonade. At the end of the game about fifty stayed and enjoyed a picnic supper.

HARRY GIRARD CONCERTS.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the Girard concerts which are being given under the auspices of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and the Glendale high school. The first of the five in the series took place Friday evening last in the high school auditorium. Mrs. W. E. Evans is chairman of the ticket selling committee of the Tuesday Afternoon Club. Mrs.
Dora Gibson is chairman of the high school division, and Mrs. Anna Kinney is the Glendale business manager acting in behalf of Mr. Harry Girard, who is giving the concerts.

ARTISTS' TEA.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Frank Entertain.

One of the most notable social events that has occurred in Glendale for a long time was the "artists' tea" given Wednesday afternoon last by Glendale's popular artist, Mr. Eugene C. Frank, and Mrs. Frank, at their home on the corner of Eagle Rock road and Sixth street. The guests present from Arizona comprised a long list of artists, art critics and members of various clubs and other organizations. The Dickens Fellowship was represented by the president of that organization, Mrs. Charles Eger of Inglewood, with several other ladies of that society, while other art, literary and civic societies of Los Angeles were numerous represented.

The house was beautifully decorated with roses and chrysanthemums; the artistic arrangement of the tea room, with windows darkened and the mild glow of the electric light creating a dreamy atmosphere, was particularly effective. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. F. McG. Kelley and Mrs.
Ralph Meeker. Assisting at the tea table and punch bowl were Mrs. Ernest Owens, Mrs. L. Andrews, and Misses Myrtle Pulliam and Abbie Ward.

The hostess and Miss Alice Frank were assisted in receiving by Mrs.
Mary H. Gridley, Mrs. Spencer Robinson, Mrs. Wellington Vannatta and Mrs. H. S. Bartlett, of Glendale.
Mr. Frank had on exhibition a fine collection of his paintings, lining the walls of his studio, while another large and choice display of his water colors were on exhibition in the summer house.

During the hours of the reception, 3 to 5 p. m., the hospitable and artistic home was crowded with visitors, who enjoyed the works of art and the heartly hospitality of their popular entertainer. Incidentally, the fact was developed that the birthday of Mrs.
Frank and the twenty-eighth anniversary of the marriage of host and hostess was being celebrated.

A TRIBUTE.

Another happy home has been invaded and saddened by the unheralded angel of death. In an unexpected moment, without the slightest warning, the soul of our "Dear Sister Daugherty" was snatched from our midst and she who only a short time ago was a living inspiration is now only a memory; sweet is the consolation of the memory of a noble life.

Years may lessen the sorrow, but time can never obliterate the memory of this friend. We how in humble submission. Be it resolved that we,
the members of the Ladies' Aid extend our sympathy to the bereaved husband. Our society has lost one of its most worthy and ardent members.
We leave her in the arms of a loving savior, who said, "Come unto me and I will give you rest."

Mrs. J. P. Shropshire,
Mrs. A. K. Crawford,
Mrs. C. E. Hutton,
Committee.

OUT OF TOWN RECEPTION.

Mrs. Charles Homer Temple of Glendale and Miss Morrell of Highland Park received at the home of Miss Morrell, at 215 West Avenue Fifty-three, on Thursday afternoon from three to five in honor of Mrs. Rivers Judson Morrell, one of the season's brides. The drawing room was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn foliage, and illuminated by softly shaded lights. The dining room was exquisite with pink carnations and ferns trailing from rustic baskets. Throughout the receiving hours music was played by a concealed orchestra. A large number of Glendale people as well as numerous out of town guests were present.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Conard S. Davis of Ninth street entertained informally at her home.

YOUTH'S BRAVERY SHAMES CROWD

Alone Among a Thousand Men, He Aids in 'Surf Rescue.

HELPS TO SAVE TWO LIVES.

Although Germantown Lad Knows Nothing of Rowing, He Jumps into Boat With Atlantic City Life Saver and Assists in Dragging Drowning Man From Breakers.

A eighteen-year-old youth shamed a thousand men and by his heroism averted a tragedy at Atlantic City recently.

About dusk a heavy, snarling sea ran, and except for the white caps the ocean to the horizon was the color of dirty mother-of-pearl. Uninviting as the water was, J. B. Mertz of Ninth and Green streets and Frank Link of Twelfth and Robinson streets, Reading, Pa., went in for a dip off New Jersey avenue. About fifty feet from the shore they were caught in the powerful onset of the tide that coils around the jetties of the new pier, says the New York World.

Finding himself in the grip of the current, Mertz, who is a good swimmer, realized the futility of battling with the eddy and let it carry him along. Link became panic stricken and fought so hard to reach shore that he was soon exhausted. Mertz, seeing his chum's peril, called for help. Penny and Parker, life guards, had a boat bobbing over the breakers in a jiffy, but they had not rowed thirty feet before a comber capsize the craft.

Life Saver is Beaten Back.

As the two men went over the side Parker seized a can buoy and started for Mertz, who was in danger of being dashed to death against the concrete piling of the pier. Meanwhile Link was drowning. Penny had righted the boat, which had been swept back to the beach with him. Again and again he tried to launch the craft.

The first cry for help had brought more than a thousand persons to the beach. They lined the water's edge and watched with fascination the drowning Link and the efforts of Parker to save Mertz.

Manifestly Penny did not have the strength needed for the work. Aid was wanted at once, but not one of the men on the beach stirred.

Lad Comes to the Rescue.
Then through this impotent gathering sprang eighteen-year-old John T.

BE WADING INTO THE SURF THEY GOT THE BOAT OUT.

Crosson of Germantown, Pa. He had been attracted to the beach by the shouts. He never had had an oar in his hand, but he had courage. Without a word he joined Penny. A dozen times they got the boat out, only to be flung back on the beach. At last, by wading into the surf to their arm-pits, they got the boat out. Penny climbed aboard and dragged the lad in.
Without orders Crosson seized the second set of oars. He bungled, of course; but, encouraged and tutored by Penny, he pulled with all his strength. After a nerve racking five minutes they were near Mertz and Parker. The life saver signaled for them to get Link, who disappeared as the boat got alongside. Penny then dived and caught him. With Crosson's aid the unconscious man was dragged aboard and taken ashore.
Meantime Parker had seized Mertz and handed him the life buoy. Then the guard, exhausted, sank. Mertz again shouted for aid. William Neely, twenty-one, and Romeo Martell, both of Philadelphia, leaped into the surf.
Neely dived and caught Parker, while Martell seized Mertz.

Then a life guard, Leddy, ran out a life line with which the men were dragged ashore. Young Crosson disappeared after he had given his name to the life guards.

NOTICE OF STREET WORK.

Public notice is hereby given, that the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, on the 28th day of October, 1912, did, at its meeting on said day, adopt a Resolution of Intention, No. 531, to order the following improvement to be made, to-wit:

First. That that portion of Central Avenue from the Northern boundary line of the City of Glendale to the Westerly prolongation across Central Avenue of the Southern line of Broadway, including all intersections of streets, be graded, oiled and macadamized in accordance with plans and profiles on file in the office of the City Engineer and the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, said specifications being numbered 11, excepting therefrom all that certain portion of the roadway of said Central Avenue 16 feet in width lying 8 feet each side of the center line of said Central Avenue from the Westerly prolongation across Central Avenue of the Southern line of Broadway to the Westerly prolongation across Central Avenue of the Northerly line of Broadway.

Second. That a cement curb be constructed along both lines of the roadway of said Central Avenue from the Northern boundary line of the City of Glendale to the North line of First Street, including returns at all street intersections, excepting along such

The Great Question Mark VIII:27-13:1.

Golden Text—Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God. Matt. xvi:16.
(1.) Verse 27—Where was Caesarea Philippi situated, and what class of people were its inhabitants?
(2.) Why did Jesus want to know who the people said he was?
(3.) Is it right or wrong, and why, for us to be anxious about what the people say of us?

(4.) Verse 28—Why did the people think Jesus was either John, Elijah or one of the prophets? (See Matt. xvi:2.)

(5.) In view of the fact that prior to this they had been saying he was the Christ, why were they not now saying so? (See John i:41; iv:42; Mark iii:11, 12; v:7.)

(6.) Why did not Jesus publicly declare himself as the Christ and why did he refuse to let them make him king? (See John vi:15.)

(7.) If Jesus at this time was not fulfilling the national expectations of the people concerning the Messiah what effect would that have upon the opinions the people had of him?

(8.) Verse 29. What evidence have we today that Jesus is the Christ of God? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(9.) How did Peter know that Jesus was Christ? (See Matt. xvi:15-17.)

(10.) Peter and the other apostles had known before that Jesus was Christ, but how does his declaration here differ from his former belief? (See Matt. xiv:33; ix:27; xii:23.)

(11.) There is belief and belief, but what is the only way to reach the supreme conviction that Jesus is the Christ? (See I Cor. xii:3.)

(12.) Verse 30—Why, seeing Jesus came to the earth as the Christ, did he forbid them to make that fact known?

(13.) Verse 31—When we are thwarted in doing our work in the best way, the way in which we had planned, what should we then do, and why?

(14.) Would Christ have preferred that they had accepted him as their Saviour rather than rejecting him? Why?

(15.) Was it God's original purpose, or not, and why, that the Jews should reject and crucify Jesus?

(16.) Verses 32-33—Wherein consisted Peter's folly in differing with Jesus?

(17.) If Jesus at this time had adopted Peter's view what would that have led him to do?

(18.) Verses 34-35—Why is it that no man can be a follower of Jesus without self denial and suffering?

(19.) What is the nature of the self denial and the suffering which all true Christians must endure?

(20.) Verses 36-37—What is the most priceless possession a man has?

(21.) To what extent of loss should a man go if essential to the salvation of his soul?

(22.) If a millionaire dies trusting in Christ what will be the difference in their wealth in eternity?

(23.) Verse 38—What is it to be ashamed of Christ and what will it be to be rejected by him?

FINGERS OF FIRE REACHED FOR HIM

Fisherman Nearly Trapped Himself in Burning Forest.

HAD HARD WORK TO GET OUT

Arrived at Clearing Just in Time to Catch Train Leaving With Thousand Victims of Conflagration—Cars Crossed Bridge Shortly Before It Crumbled and Fell.

It was in the summer of 1894. I was on my annual vacation, with a few days still remaining, and, thinking that a fishing trip would be a pleasant reminder for future dreary days, I packed my grip and that evening took a train north.

I did not know that there was anything unusual in the condition of the country until I got off the train in the dark of the early morning, although there were the strong odor of burning pine and an occasional hot blast of air, writes James Ferguson in the St. Paul Pioneer Press.

After a walk of several miles I finally reached my fishing hole. I was somewhat surprised at the atmosphere not clearing up, as it was still dark, although nearly 6 o'clock a. m. Finally it did clear enough to begin operations, but there was nothing doing. Something seemed to be wrong. I did not feel right myself. The air was full of dust, hot and sultry.

However, with fisherman persistence I kept at the game, but the nimble trout refused to come forth. Thus the forenoon passed.

Had to Cool Hands and Face.

Thinking it might be wise to change my location, I started up the stream. Several times I had to stop to cool my hands and face, as it was getting unusually warm. I kept on until I reached a clearing, and then I learned the cause of the trouble.

The woods were on fire. Ahead of me to the right and left I could see the flames mount high above the trees, and the air was hot, like a blast from a furnace.

The sun, a big red ball, looked horribly strange. Animals of the woods running about seemed to crave my protection.

I recognized I was in a tight place and started for where there was the least fire, but there I made a mistake. I should have gone down the stream, where I could have cooled my parched body at any rate, but on I

PLANT A TREE.

A woodman raised his ax so keen To fell a noble tree
That stood like a monarch tall and strong,
With shade spread far and free.

When a poet, passing through the wood, Just chanced that ax to see
And cried as the blade was raised to strike, "Woodman, spare that tree!"

But the woodman would not spare the tree
The woodman did not care He was greedy for gold that the forests hold,
And so he stripped them bare.

So the forests are gone, and the mountain springs Are dried by the sun's strong glare,
And the fields are dry and the floods dry Because the hills are bare.

You cannot spare that tree, my friend,
For the green wood is no more,
But you may plant a tree, my friend,
On the hills and beside your door.

And thus, if we all shall plant a tree,
The woods will come back again,
And the monarch oak with his leafy cloak Will shade the hill and glen.

The birds will sing in the leafy boughs,
And the squirrels will play as of yore,
And you'll bless the day that you planted A tree
As you sit in your shaded door.
C. M. BARNITZ.

KURIOS FROM KORRESPONDENTS

Q.—Which incubator hatches the most chicks? A.—There are so many makes we haven't tried we cannot answer this question. If eggs are good, some of the cheapest, poorest machines hatch as many as the best machines, but the chicks die off or grow up culls. What you want is quality, livable chicks, and the machines that hatch quality we have found produce the quantity also.

Q.—Why do you suppose my Pekin ducks do not get broody? I purchased them from a large plant in New York. A.—The large plants do all their hatching with incubators. Their breeding ducks are simply egg machines, are never allowed to sit, and thus the maternal instinct is bred out of them.

Q.—Which has more influence with poultry judges, color or shape? A.—While a number of our judges are crazy on color, we think the majority give the more prominence to shape, other things being equal. Of course, glaring faults in color, in head points, size, would handicap a bird, though perfect in shape.

Q.—When was the American Poultry association organized? Who were the first officers? When was the first edition of the Standard issued? A.—At Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 15, 1873. President, W. H. Churchman, Wilmington, Del.; secretary, J. M. Wade, Philadelphia, Pa. February, 1874.

FEATHERS AND EGGSHELLS.

The farmer loses a mighty good friend when he quits raising turkeys. Turkeys spread out in a line when they cross a field, and he who follows after finds they have systematically cleaned up about every bug and wiggler. Think what a swath in the grasshopper crop 100 big turkeys can cut!

A gobbler on the farm of Albert Krouse, Kreamer, Pa., disgusted at the way his mate vacillated in hatching, drove her from the nest and hatched the eggs himself. Now, if the father is mother to those poult, who would have been their mother if an incubator had hatched them?

Henry Brion of Liberty, Pa., is mourning the loss of fourteen young turkeys. The hogs "et 'em."

Hunters have little reason to complain because farmers refuse to allow them to hunt on their lands. When a Towanda (Pa.) farmer purchased signs to warn hunters off his land he declared that hunters shot and carried off sixty of his chickens last year. This is only one case.

The Young Men's Christian association is adding "Poultry" to its educational work, and the new entry is popular. We have given stereopticon lectures before a number of them the past season and found large, enthusiastic audiences, anxious for practical information.

It certainly is beneficial to both sexes to separate the cockerels and pullets. Take the cockerels out before they start to chase the pullets, keep them all on grass runs and feed plenty of protein, but no dope.

Cutting chicken out of the army ration saves the government $52,000 per year. As much of it was cold storage chicken, it also saves a lot of indigestion and some funerals.

Lawn clippings should be dried, but not so dry as hay, and hung up in bags. Steamed for the mash, it is excellent for winter, especially if full of four leaf white clover.

When a chicken gets loose in the house go slow and quiet about putting him out or he'll smash the bric-a-brac. Open the windows and "shoo" gently. When Mrs. Hammer of Oakview, Pa., tried to chase a rooster from her kitchen it flew and upset the soup kettle and scalded the baby.

It's certainly a gratification in these times when feed is way up for a poultry raiser to have fields of grain to harvest, and there are not many large plants that succeed where all the grain must be brought.

The market value of eggs produced annually in the United States reaches $500,000,000.

The farmers' institute lecturer who gives out poultry information should be wise on poultry in general and in particular. It's not just chickens, but turkeys; not just turkeys, but ducks, pigeons, geese, guineas, roasters, broilers and capons they raise on the farm, and the lecturer must be prepared to give practical information on all phases of poultry culture.

COUNCIL GROVE, Kas., Nov. 9.—Worry over the inability to find $3000 in gold, which she knew to be buried in an iron pot on her farm, is believed to have caused the despondency which led to the suicide here yesterday of Mrs. Joseph Rutledge.

Mr. Rutledge, a farmer, had concealed his savings in his own way, promising to reveal the cache to his wife before he died. His death came suddenly last February, before he could reveal the hiding place.

Another McGillis Letter

321 Kenwood St., Oct. 14, 1912.

L. N. McGillis, Esq.

Dear Sir: Five reasons which I think are sufficient for everybody to trade at your grocery are:

First. When you started your grocery on a strictly cash basis, it enabled you to lower the prices on your goods.

Second. You have given your profits of every Saturday to the churches and you have also given certain days for the ladies to give home-cooking days and give the returns to the churches.

Third. You have been able to make a still greater reduction in prices when you stopped the free deliveries.

Fourth. You are helping the people who do not trade with you as well as those who do, because when you lower your prices the other grocers do the same, but do not lower them as much as you do.

Fifth. You are doing a good business and the man who does the business has no stale goods on hand. By these five reasons you are keeping the people from going to Los Angeles to spend their money and helping them to patronize their own town. Men like you means prosperity for Glendale. Trusting you will find this letter satisfactory, I remain,

Yours respectfully,

GERTRUDE KLEIN.

Next week will appear the letter of Lloyd Harkness.

WEST GLENDALE

Mrs. Earl Kinzell entertained friends Los Angeles on Tuesday.

I'm not afraid to go home in the dark any more, for our street lights are all in now and there is nothing to be afraid of. On Monday evening the lights on Broadway and Ivy streets blazed forth and the remainder were got in readiness just as rapidly as possible. Although they are not as artistic as those in the other section of town, they answer the purpose and the majority of the residents are satisfied.

Mrs. A. J. Klein and children Gerold and Robert, expect to leave Sunday for Phoenix, Ariz., where they will join Mr. Klein. Mr. and Mrs. Klein have lived in Glendale for the past five years and have made many friends, all of whom are very sorry to see them leave. However, it is the sincere wish of all that the climate of Arizona will be very beneficial to Mr. Klein's health. They leave their home here completely furnished and for rent.

Misses Louise and Ella Brooks entertained the Queen Esther at their home on Oak street in a very pleasant manner on Saturday last. After the regular business of the class was concluded, a social hour was enjoyed. These young ladies were both born in foreign countries, their parents being teachers at the time. They showed to their guests numerous souvenirs of different countries. Mrs. Brooks, who, by the way, is a very talented woman, explained the use of each article and made it decidedly interesting. Dainty refreshments were served.

CHURCH LADIES TO HAVE BAZAARS.

The ladies of the West Glendale church are making preparations for a bazaar to be given in the chapel on Dec. 12th, of which other particulars will be given later.

Rev. A. H. Robins, a veteran of the Civil war, and family, have taken possession of the Ballantyne home on Glendale avenue, where they will remain during the coming winter.

During the past few days the new motorcycle of City Marshal Gould has not been standing idle. He has done the "pinching" act to a number of parties bent on breaking the speed laws, and each time the city treasury is enriched by from $15 to $25. Call again, Bill.

While riding his pony on Central avenue last Thursday afternoon, Keith Davis, son of F. H. Davis, proprietor of the Davis Grocery Company, had the misfortune of having the animal slip and fall in the wet street. The pony rolled on the boy's leg, breaking it about an inch above the knee.

A meeting of the ways and means committee of the Thursday Afternoon Club of this place was held at the home of Mrs. F. E. Peters, on Glendale avenue, Tuesday afternoon. This meeting was in the interest of the Christmas Shop which will be given by this committee early in December in Knights of Pythias hall.

The work of moving the old meat market building on San Fernando road next to the Tropic Mercantile company onto the lot at the rear of the former site has about been completed and the foundation for the new brick structure, to be erected by Major J. A. Payne, who purchased the property recently, will start in a few days. The building will be rushed to completion.

An interesting meeting of the woman's association of the Presbyterian church was held in the church auditorium yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. T. L. Ambrose, of Los Angeles, who took for her subject, "The Firing Line." The affair was well attended by a number of the leading women of this place and the time proved exceedingly profitable.

Ground has been broken at this early date in the Alhambra tract on Alhambra avenue. At this time five modern homes are in the course of construction and it is understood that before two weeks have passed a number of other homes will be started. Prospects are that before three months have passed at least twenty new homes will be either completed or in course of construction.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dutton were pleasantly surprised by a number of their friends at their home, 306 Paloma avenue, Saturday evening. Cards and other games were enjoyed, after which refreshments, brought by the surprised, were served. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Tiffin, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Burlingham, Mr. and Mrs. George Peck, Mrs. Della Haggood, Misses Elise Vance, Dorothy Dutton, Daphne Burlingham, Stella Miller, and Jessie Dutton. Messrs. Everett Peck, Fred Spear, Charles Haggood and R. E. Tiffin.

Again some one is dreaming of a macadam boulevard from this city to the center of Los Angeles via Edendale. This possibility has been the object in past years of much visionary endeavor and it seems entirely. It seems that the dreamers now are the officers of the Pacific Home Building Association, who have recently purchased 222 acres of the Richardson tract west of the Southern Pacific tracks. This company proposes to extend Central avenue across the Southern Pacific tracks from its present western terminus and on through the tract to the tract's western boundary line, which is almost to the Los Angeles river. From that point it is "suggested" that the boulevard be built on into Los Angeles, through Edendale. Laying all jokes aside it will be admitted that this is the logical road into Los Angeles. Should this boulevard be erected it will shorten the trip from this city to the center of Los Angeles from two to four miles, which would mean nearly cutting the distance in half.

TROPICO STILL HAS COIN.

The following report has been submitted to the board of trustees by City Treasurer Brown:

Balance on hand Oct. 1, 1912, $1,326.75 Receipts for October, 1912, 191.05

Total for October, $1,517.80 Payments during month, 425.40

Bal. on hand, Nov. 1, 1912, $1,092.40

NEW CIVIC ORGANIZATION.

Thursday evening of last week a number of the newer residents of Tropic met at the home of Mr. Brown on Gardenia avenue to take steps preliminary to the formation of an association having for its object the advancement of the material interests of the city. About 25 persons were present. Mr. Frank B. McKenna was made temporary chairman and Mr. Clemens, secretary. One of the things the new organization hopes to secure is a depot building on the Pacific Electric line at the junction of San Fernando road and Brand boulevard and an effort will be made to secure some improvement in the car service. Another meeting will be held in a few days to effect a permanent organization.

Don't forget Russell Purity Bakery wagon on Saturday for those good Coffee Cakes.

the Dutch Republic. Mr. Cushing wishes it known that the November number of the periodicals have arrived and are now on the reading tables. Ladies Home Journal, Everybody's, Munsey's Woman's Home Companion, the Delicater, the American and the Youth's Companion. This library is open daily, except Sunday, from 2 to 6 and from 7 to 9 p. m.

The third reading and final passage will take place, next regular meeting.

The board has instructed City Attorney Baker to establish fire limits in this city.

At the request of Mr. LaFontaine the matter of opening and improving Acacia avenue has been taken up by the board, and all possible haste will be made in this matter.

A written protest has been filed by S. W. Johnson protesting against the filling up of natural outlet for storm water on Adams street, and diverting same west on Acacia street to Dunbarton street. It is claimed that the water will turn down Dunbarton street onto the property of the Darracott estate. The protest demands that the outlet for such water be enlarged on Adams street and Acacia avenue. Mr. Johnson threatens to bring suit against the city in the event of these fillings being allowed to remain as they and the Darracott estate and other property being damaged.

The Hagar compartment house, Brand boulevard opposite La Ramada, is now receiving its furnishings and makes a splendid showing, with its two-story massive front columns and colonial style in pure white. It represents an investment of $15,000.

A little daughter, to be called "Helen," came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Koepke, No. 815 San Rafael avenue, on Nov. 2d. Mr. Koepke was foreman of masonry on the Hamburger block during its construction. Mrs. Koepke's sister, Mrs. Carniveth, is staying with her.

H. C. Richter, the well known Chicago caterer, has rented one of the Hagar flats for occupancy during the erection by Mr. Richter of a large modern two-story residence on Mountain avenue, facing south in the immediate front of Brand boulevard. The construction plans have been placed in the hands of the contractor.

A movement is said to be on foot to arrange for the signatures to petitions requesting an election for submission of the question of annexing to the city of Los Angeles, to the voters. Other contiguous territory is preparing to join in on the same proposition, the object being the securing of Owens River water, and other advantages including the name "Los Angeles."

A party was given by Master Lawrence Bassett, on the 9th inst. at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bassett, 1124 Melrose avenue, in observance of his tenth birthday. Among the guests present were Frances Wyman, Frank Balthis, Robert and Rosemary Harasta, Vivian Faust, David Kelley, Harold and Marian Sohner, and Roy Wetman. Dancing and games were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served. The young host is a fierce baseball "fan" and as souvenirs of the occasion displays 3 bats, 5 balls and a mit.

On opening the bids for the Central Ave. Grammar School by the school trustees last Thursday it was found that they ran from $1500 to $7500 above the available appropriation for the building. One cause is found in the general advance in building material, amounting to about $2000 on the job bid on, since plans were started. There will be a readjustment of plans and re-advertising for bids the present week. It is still the hope of the trustees to open the February term in the building.

The question of licenses for hotels and restaurants having been decided in the negative, in the supervisorial district as a whole, although the Verdugo precinct gave a two to one vote in the affirmative, out of consideration for the two world-famous Spanish restaurants, La Ramada and Casa Verdugo, those two resorts will now have to draw a line through the liquid refreshments offered on the bills of fare and heretofore considered indispensable features of the service. It is to be hoped that they will continue to prosper, nevertheless.

E. C. Williamson, the Los Angeles contractor and builder, who has done a large amount of construction work in Casa Verdugo this season, bought this week 200 feet of frontage facing south on Louise street, 200 feet south of Fairview avenue, from J. E. Hopper, of the Home Savings Bank, Los Angeles. The north 50 feet is occupied by a residence, while on the three 50-foot lots adjoining Mr. Williamson will at once erect modern chalet style bungalows of the most up to date type, the stakes for the first one of seven rooms being already in.

The M. J. Dohan homestead of 5 acres on Kenneth, corner of Campbell Roads, was sold last week, through the agency of Geo. T. Holman, to Mattison B. Jones of Glendale, for a consideration of $12,500. Mr. Dohan, who recently retired from an active position with the Santa Fe Ry. Co., acquired the property some 15 years ago. It has a corner frontage of 360 on Kenneth Road, at an elevation of about 800 feet being a point of vantage facing Griffith Park, and sweeping the view the entire length of the San Fernando valley from east to west, with the Verdugo Mts. in the immediate rear. This class of property is rapidly rising in value.
